

Teach in Spain as a language assistant

Spanish school year 2018-2019

Application deadline: 6th April 2018

The English language assistantship programme is an initiative of the Spanish Ministry of Education offering scholarships for New Zealand and Fiji university graduates and students (majoring in any subject) with some proficiency in Spanish. English language assistants will support the teaching of English in Spain while they have an international experience. At the same time, the programme provides Spanish students and teachers of English the opportunity to study English in depth and to familiarise themselves with the assistant's culture.

As a language assistant, you will support the teaching of English in primary, secondary or language schools from October 2018 to May/June 2019, or alternatively from January to May/June 2019. Preferred placement in most Spanish regions can be requested.

Teaching time is limited to between 12 and 16 hours a week. Assistants receive a scholarship to cover accommodation and food expenses (between €700 to €1,000 monthly), an orientation course and full medical insurance. Travel costs will be the responsibility of the scholarship recipient.

Eligible candidates are New Zealand or Fiji citizens under 60, native-level speakers of English, and university graduates or university students in their final bachelor's year at the end of the academic year 2018.

The application deadline is 6 April, 2018. There is no cost or fee to submit applications.
